Army widows

1483. SHRI RAJNI RANJAN SAHU: Will the Minister of DEFENCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to a news item which appeared in the Indian Express dated the 24th September, 1988 under the caption 'Dying hopes of Army widows'; and

(b) if so, the steps Government propose to take to change the rules for providing speedy employment of such widows?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENCE PRODUCTION AND SUPPLIES IN THE MINISTRY OF DEFENCE (SHRI CHINTAMANI PANIGRAHI): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) All the three cases referred to in the news item relate to compassionate employment where the death of the Government servant was not attributable to service. The cases were considered and decided in accordance with the instructions contained in the Office Memorandum No. 14014|6|86|Estt.(D) dated 30th June 1987 issued by the Department of Personnel and Training which are to be followed by all Ministries including the Ministry of Defence. In view of the limited number of vacancies available for such employment each case is considered on merit, taking into account all factors, to select the most deserving among all such cases. Only one of the three cases cited has been accepted for compassionate employment. Any change in the instructions regarding compassionate employment has to be considered only by the Department of Personnel and Training.

Benefits for adopting family welfare norms

1484. SHRI SURESH PACHOURI: Will the Minister of HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that employees of BHEL, Bhopal adopting family norms have been entitled to numerous benefits for the family welfare observed in the State;

(b) what were the facilities provided and to what extent this has helped in improving the family welfare programmes in the State; and

(c) what are the other steps being taken to improve the family welfare programme in the State?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE (KUMARI SAROJ KHAPARDE): (a) and (b) Employees of the BHEL, Bhopal get facilities like cash incentives, special casual leave, special increment, rebate in interest on House Building loan etc. for adopting small family norms. Incentives play a crucial role in attracting people to accept family planning, so also incentives given by BHEL, Bhopal might help in promoting small family norm amongst its employees.

(c) Steps taken to improve performance under the family welfare programme in the country include involving voluntary organisations, enhancing community participation, adopting improved communication approaches, improving quality of services, enhancing child survival rates through Universal Immunisation Programme, intensifying population education etc. Madhya Pradesh has been identified as one of the low performing States in the country. It is getting special attention by way of review of its performance in Cabinet Secretariat.
